

COUNSELOR'S CORNER

Recently in Arizona, I was blessed by seeing God's majesty in His awesome creation. The rock formations, the desert, the Grand Canyon, the Colorado River - all shouted praise to Him. Immersed in the grandeur, I asked to see His magnificence in other ways, so I might daily be reminded to depend on His power to take me through whatever difficulties arise, reminded that His ability to take care of this world is gargantuan compared to my difficulties, reminded that He has the big picture in front of Him. Each day (then and now) He has given me other evidences of Who He is. One bit of evidence?

A button that read, Too Blessed to be Stressed. Isn't that great!?!

“Don't worry about anything, but pray about everything. With thankful hearts offer up your prayers and requests to God. Then, because you belong to Christ Jesus, God will bless you with peace that no one can completely understand. And this peace will control the way you think and feel.” Philippians 4:6-7
